In succeeding to the business of the late firm of Liet. Morrhson & Co., we desire to thank the trade for the liberal patronage extended to the tonse with which the senior partner has been connected for over twenty-dive years.

Our long experience with the wants of the trade of this section, and our ample facilities for the transaction of the Wholesale Grocery Business, lead us to believe that we can offer inducements not surpassed elsewhere.

In connection with our regular business as heretofore, we have leased a first-class Fork Packing Establishment, and have secured the services of Mr. John Bayla, an experienced and skillfull Packer, by which arrangement we are combied to sell Bacon, Mess Turk and Lard, at the very lowest rates, for stock of superior quality.

We intend to offer special inducements to Cash and Prompt-pay buyers. We request an examination of our stock and price list. of our stock and price list, of our stock and price list, HENRY K. LIST & CO.

Well, sir, it all went wrong somehow Well, sir, it all went wrong somehow. Parson he was South country: and, when his time came to kiss the bride he stood and looked ever so helpless; and I had to tell him he must kiss her; and even then he stared foolish like a bit before he kissed her, and the poor lass's face getting up and the tear in her eye at being slighted. And that put Patty out for one thing: and then she wouldn't give away the ribbon to the fastest runner.—
The lads run a hundred yards to the bride, for ribbon and kiss you know.—
Twasn't the ribbon she grudged, poor Twasn't the ribbon she grudged, poor wench; but the fastest runner in Cairnhope town is that Will Gibbon, a masty, ugly, slobbering chap, that was always after her, and Philip jealous of him: so she did for the best, and Will Gibbon she did for the best, and Will Gibbon safe to win it. But the village lads they didn't see the reason, and took it all to themselves. Was she better than her grandmother? and were they worse than their grandsires? They ran on before, and fired the anyil when she passed: just fancy I an afront close to her own door, and, sir, she walked in a doors crying. There was a wedding for you George the blacksmith was that hurt at their making free with his smithy to affront her, he lifted his arm for the first time, and pretty

While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for includent consumption, and the daugerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sanden attacks of trang., it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all arts of the properties of the control of the throat and lungs.

Although settled Communities is the gain incurable, all great numbers of cases, quies the disease seemed settled, have been competed yeared, and the patient restored to Sund South South by the Cherry Pretoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Junes and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pretoral in which reach them, under the Cherry Pretoral in whall reach them, under the Cherry Pretoral in whall reach them, under the Cherry Pretoral in whall and frequent doses. So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

from malarious, marsh, or mlasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it those Carre, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any partient. The number and importance of its curre in the ague districts, are iterally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is grainfied by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical curve effected in obstinate cases, and where other renewites had whelly falled.

For there Completions, either resident in, or travelling through minamital localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For there Completions, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, simulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Billous Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable curve, where other medicines had failed.
